

Neighborhood Security Initiative Privacy Policy

The CENTRAL WEST END NEIGHBORHOOD SECURITY INITIATIVE website, <https://www.cwensi.com/> (this “Website”) is owned by the Central West End Neighborhood Security Initiative (“NSI”). NSI is committed to protecting the privacy of its members, staff, donors, and volunteers. We do not sell, rent, lend, trade, or otherwise furnish our constituents’ names, phone numbers, addresses or other personal information to individuals, organizations or entities outside of the NSI. All personal information we receive from and about clients, staff, volunteers, and donors is strictly confidential. Organizational files are securely protected and are used for the sole purpose of administering information as it relates to the NSI.

PRIVACY POLICY FOR WEB USERS

There is no need to register or log in to the NSI Website. Individuals are permitted to browse freely without submitting personal information.

We collect no personal information when you visit our website unless you voluntarily submit information: (1) to submit a question or comment about our services offered, (2) to register for our communication news materials, (3) to request additional information.

At this time, using this Website carries the same general risks as using any other http:// site on the Internet.

Our website content platform may automatically collect certain information from your computer (such as your Internet address and browser type) using two methods: (1) “cookies” and (2) log files.

There are two basic types of information that NSI might collect: personal and non-personal information.

As you browse this Website, you may opt to provide NSI with personal information. Personal information is information that contains identifiers such as your first and last name, phone number, or email address.
